

NATIONALLY HARMONIZED B.Sc. CHEMICAL ENGINEERING PROGRAM
Course Code	Econ4171
Course Name	Introduction to Economics
Degree Program	B.Sc. in Chemical Engineering
Module Name	Introduction to Economics
Module Coordinator	N.N.
Lecturer	Service course by Economics department
ECTS Credits	4CP
Contact hours (per week)	Lecture	Tutorial	Laboratory or Practice	Home study
	3	0	0	3
Students work load per semester	48	0	0	48
Course Objectives & Competences to be Acquired	To introduce students to the basic principles and concepts of economics. Up on completion of this course students enabled to Understand the basic principles of economics and easily communicate in common economic terms.
Course Description/Course Contents	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. An introduction to economics and economy,</li> <li>2. National income, employment and fiscal policy,</li> <li>3. Money, banking and monetary policy.</li> <li>4. Introduction to Macro economics,</li> <li>5. Introduction to micro economics and product markets</li> </ol>
Pre-requisites	None
Semester	Year IV semester II
Status of Course	Compulsory
Teaching & Learning Methods	Lecture, home study
Assessment/Evaluation	Continuous assessment..... (50%) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Test / Quiz _____ 20%</li> <li>• Assignment _____ 20%</li> <li>• Presentation _____ 10%</li> </ul> Final Exam .....(50%)
Course policy	Attendance: As per the harmonized academic policy  Assessments: Students are supposed to handle all the assessments on time.

	Cheating/ Plagiarism: It is strictly forbidden and any miss conduct is accountable as per the students' code of conduct.
Literature	Text Book: 1.
Approval Section	Module Team/ Course Chair