

Chapter Contents

Chapter one

- 1.1 Definitions of disability and vulnerability
- 1.2 Types of disabilities and vulnerabilities
- 1.3 Causes of disability and vulnerability
- 1.4 Historical movements from segregation to inclusion
- 1.5 The effects of attitude on the move towards inclusion
- 1.6 Models of disability

Chapter two

- 2.1. Define inclusion,
- 2.2. Discuss the concept of inclusion in education,
- 2.3. Identify reason regarding shift from special education and integrated education inclusion,
- 2.4. Differentiate the major rationales for inclusion,
- 2.5. List factors that influenced development of inclusion,
- 2.6. Identify benefits of inclusion to students, teachers' parents and society,
- 2.7. Name major characteristics of inclusive school and inclusive classroom environments,
- 2.8. Point out strategies to implement inclusion in teaching and learning processes
- 2.9. Differentiate the major barriers to inclusion.

Chapter three

- 3.1. Discuss the impact of disability and vulnerability on daily life of persons with disabilities and vulnerabilities.

- 3.2. Depict needs of persons with disabilities and vulnerabilities
- 3.3. describe the effects of environment on the life of persons with disabilities and vulnerabilities.
- 3.4. Describe intervention and rehabilitation approaches for disabilities and vulnerabilities.
- 3.5. depict barriers for inclusive services provisions in different sectors
- 3.6. describe the role technologies in the life of persons with disabilities
- 3.7. relate the concept of inclusiveness to their specific profession
- 3.8. Evaluate inclusiveness of services provision in their specific fields of studies

Chapter four

- 4.1. Define Inclusive Culture
- 4.2. Discuss the dimensions of Inclusive culture
- 4.3. Evaluate policy related to Inclusive Culture
- 4.4. Explain the process of building community for inclusive culture
- 4.5. Discuss approaches of establishing inclusive culture
- 4.6. Discuss inclusive values
- 4.7. Explore and discuss indigenous inclusive values
- 4.8. Evaluate existing inclusive practices

Chapter Five

- 5.1. Define Peace, Democracy and Development
- 5.2. Identify sources of exclusionary practices
- 5.3. Discuss exclusionary practices in the community

- 5.4. Discuss respecting diverse needs, culture, values, demands and ideas
- 5.5. Discuss conflict emanated from exclusion
- 5.6. Explain means and benefits of participation of the marginalized group of people
- 5.7. Discuss the democratic principles for inclusive practices
- 5.8. Explain the importance of inclusion for psychosocial development
- 5.9. Elaborate the importance of inclusion for economic development
- 5.10. Discuss the importance of inclusion for peace

Chapter six

- 6.1. Discuss the concept of legal framework
- 6.2. Identify international and national legal frameworks in relation to inclusiveness
- 6.3. Discuss legal frameworks and their implementation
- 6.4. Explore gaps in implementation of legal frameworks to implement inclusion

Chapter Seven

- 7.1 Provisions of Resources
- 7.2 School based resource room
- 7.3 Resources for work/social environment